Local Dairy Herd Receives Awards

At the Annual Meeting of the Lynchburg Dairy Herd Improvement Association held Monday at the Colonial Restaurant the Hix Brothers' Dairy Herd received three awards.

This Appomattox herd, for the second year, had the highest milk production 15,573 pounds and the highest fat production – 519 pounds.

A new award was introduced this year. This was to recognize the cow that had the highest production in the Association. This also went to Hix Brothers who owned No. 67 – a 12-year-old cow that produced 25,092 pounds of milk in 305 days.

Number 67 has been disposed of due to mastitis, but she has two daughters in the Hix herd to carry on her tradition.

These awards are provided by Roanoke City Mills.

John and William Hix with Jim Smith, Extension Agent now awards presented them by Roanoke City Mills at the recent Lynchburg DHIA Annual Meeting.

Mathematics? Indeed Yes!

Miss Helen Lukens, Supervisor of Elementary Mathematics, is demonstrating manipulation by nine. Appomattox County primary and elementary teachers met at the Appomattox Intermediate School during today's evaluation day to become involved in the "hand-on" approach to learning mathematics. The workshop afforded each teacher the opportunity to use the state elementary math guide by choosing selected objectives, corresponding the mathematical idea in the guide, developing teacher techniques for objectives and listing manipulative devices and materials to be used by pupils to learn mathematical concepts.

Donate To Gladstone Squad

John Thomas Paulette, on the left, member of the Appomattox Jaycees,is shown presenting a check in the amount of $50.00 to Dorman Banton of the Gladstone Rescue Squad.

This is just one of the many services the local Jaycees render to volunteer organizations in our county. The money will be used to buy a hotst needed by the squad.

This picture and article appeared in the March 8th edition of the Times-Virginian stating that the amount donated was $500.00. We regret the error and wish to correct it in this manner.

MRS. DICKERSON 5TH 4-H CLUB

The meeting was called to order by our president, Steve Cobb. The song leaders then led us in songs and we played a game where you send someone out of the room and hide a piece of paper on someone else then the person returns to find the paper. When he gets close you clap your hands.

The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting.

Mr. Sweet talked to us about County Demonstration Day on March 31 9:30 at Appomattox Intermediate School. He told us about the TV program on Mulligan Stew beginning March 31 9:00 a.m. on Chennel 7. This program last for six weeks. It is about health and good nutrition.

Mrs. Johnson gave a demonstration on Honey Milk Balls to show us how to do our demonstrations.

The meeting was then adjourned.

SPOUT SPRING

The ladies of the Mt. Shiloh Baptist Church are having an all day dinner this Saturday, March 17th at the home of Mrs. Georgia Fleshman. There will be plenty of chitterlings (boiled or fried - your choice), chicken, vegetables, and desserts.

We will deliver. Please come or call in your orders. Phone 352-2752.

STONEWALL EXTENSION HOMEMAKER'S CLUB

The Stonewall Extension Homemakers Club met with Hallie Roope on March 8, 1973, with seven members present.

Our meeting began with a demonstration by Lillian Ronton on making "Fancy Sandwiches." After Inez Foster had asked the Lord's Blessing on our food we enjoyed a covered dish luncheon as well as the sandwiches.

After lunch, the president called the meeting to order and Hallie Roope led the devotions, Eleanor Stratton then led in prayer.

The roll call was checked and the minutes read. There was one correction to the minutes; the April meeting will be held April 19, 1973, at the regular time, instead of in the evening as had been reported.

The treasurer gave her report and collected the "Pennies for Friendship."

We then discussed the District III Spring Meeting on Mar. 27th; suggestions for Achievement Day 1973; the Extension Homemakers Scholarship; a "Council on Aging" which meets in Lynchburg at the same time as our regular meeting; and the new date for the tour of de John's Bath Boutique.

The meeting was closed with the Homemaker's Creed and Prayer.

Eleanor Stratton, Sect.

CON TERRA WOMAN CLUB

The Con-Terra Womans Club met last Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Stacey Gray at Thomas Terrace.

Members of Junior Girls Scout Troop #357 presented comedy skits on manners and etiquette. Mrs. H. T. Burleigh, leader, reported on the troops activities and earnings received from the sale of cookies last year.

Mrs. Thomas Campbell and Mrs. Howard Bryant assisted with the troop which has been sponsored by the Con-Terra Woman's Club for the past five years.

Mrs. Jerry Kornbav, president, conducted the meeting at which members voted to present a donation to the Concord Rescue Squad. The donation represents the proceeds from a club sponsored square dance held in February.

Mrs. Eddie Gunter, Jr., chairman of the annual May banquet, announced that the event will be held May 12.
